

LINDA JONES MEMORIAL AWARD

POSTER PRESENTATION EVALUATION

NOMINATION TERMS OF REFERENCE

DESCRIPTION

The award honours Linda Jones, for significant service to the Canadian Land Reclamation Association / Association Canadienne de Réhabilitation des Sites Dégradés (CLRA/ACRSD) as secretary treasurer for over twenty years. Linda was specifically interested in promoting student participation in CLRA events and membership in CLRA.

Two awards are presented annually to students in a reclamation related program at a Canadian institution in recognition of excellence in academic studies which advance the theory, knowledge or practice of land reclamation. One award will be for a poster presentation and one for an oral presentation. Each award will be for $1000 and a one-year membership in the CLRA.

The competition for the awards is held in conjunction with the CLRA/ACRSD Annual Meeting.

ELIGIBILITY

- Students must be in a land reclamation related program, including but not limited to agriculture, biology, botany, environmental science, environmental studies, engineering, forestry, geography, land reclamation, landscape architecture, mining, plant science, soil science at a post secondary Canadian educational institution.
- Students may be in an undergraduate program, or a graduate program (MSc, PhD).
- The recipients must accept the award in person at the CLRA/ACRSD Annual Meeting for the year in which the award is presented.
